

Havighurst Colloquia

in Russian and Post-Soviet Studies

Fall 2002

Mondays
12-1:30
Room 209
Harrison Hall
Bring a lunch.

The Havighurst Center

Karen Dawisha, Director
Lynn Stevens, Program Coordinator
116 Harrison Hall
Miami University
Oxford, Ohio 45056
(513) 529-3303
HavighurstCenter@muohio.edu
www.muohio.edu/havighurstcenter

September 16

Ryan Barilleaux, Miami University of Ohio
The Presidency: American Lessons for East European Institution-Builders

September 23

Bradley Snyder, Undergraduate Summer Scholar, Miami
University of Ohio
Religion in Postcommunist Europe

September 30

Steven Norris, Miami University of Ohio
Tsarist Russia, Lubok Style: Nikita Mikhalkov's Barber of Siberia and Russian Post-Soviet Identity

October 7

Jason Wittenberg, University of Wisconsin, Madison
Everyday Resistance to Communism and Its Postcommunist Consequences

October 14

Janet Johnson, Havighurst Postdoctoral Fellow,
Miami University of Ohio
The Naming of Violence Against Women in Postcommunist Russia

October 21

Kathryn Stoner-Weiss, Princeton University
Resisting the State: Reform and Retrenchment in Post-Soviet Russia

October 28

Dwight Semler, The University of Chicago
How Enterprise Managers Destroyed the Soviet Union: A New Political-Economic Genealogy of Decline and Collapse

November 4

Aurelian Craiutu, Indiana University
Postcommunist Politics and the Virtue of Moderation

November 11

Karen Dawisha, Miami University of Ohio
Is Russian Democracy a Help or Hindrance to its Neighbors?

November 18

Warren Mason, Miami University of Ohio
The European Union and Eastern Europe

November 25

Rumyana Deltcheva, Independent Scholar
Woody and the Russians: The Influence of the Classical Russian Novelists on Woody Allen

December 2

Susan A. Crate, Havighurst Postdoctoral Fellow
Cows and Kin: The Cultural Ecology of Viliui Sakha in the Post-Socialist Era