

The Havighurst Center
for Russian and Post-Soviet Studies
116 Harrison Hall
Miami University
Oxford, Ohio 45056
(513) 529-3303
Email: HavighurstCenter@muhio.edu
Website: www.muhio.edu/havighurstcenter

3rd Annual International Young Researchers Conference

featuring speakers Andrei Golovnev,
Institute of History & Archaeology, Ekaterinburg
& Mark Nuttall, University of Alberta

Sponsored by:
The Havighurst Center
for Russian and
Post-Soviet Studies
co-sponsored by the Institute of Environmental Sciences and
the Graduate School

Russia in Global Context: Peoples, Environments & Policies
November 6-8, 2003

The Havighurst Center for Russian and Post-Soviet Studies
3rd Annual International Young Researchers Conference
Russia in Global Context: Peoples, Environments, Policies
November 6-8, 2003

Thursday, November 6

5:30pm Upham Hall 275

Keynote Lecture and Reception

Andrei Golovnev, Institute of History & Archaeology, Ekaterinburg, Russia in the Circumpolar North: An Overview

Friday, November 7

9:30-10:00am MacMillan Hall 212

Introductions

Susan Crate, Havighurst Postdoctoral Fellow and Karen Dawisha, Director of the Havighurst Center, Miami University

10:00am-12:00pm MacMillan Hall 212

The Philosophy and Efficacy of a Development Policy

Chair: Gene Willeke, Institute of Environmental Sciences, Miami University

Niobe Thompson, Scott Polar Research Institute, University of Cambridge, The transient mode of development in northeast Russia: Chukotka's corporate transformation

John Round, University of Leicester, Development policy in the Russian far north: In whose interest is it?

Discussant: Charles Stevens, International Studies and American Studies, Miami University

2:00-4:00pm MacMillan Hall 212

Legal Systems: Coming to Grips with Russia

Chair: Steve Norris, History, Miami University

Nelson Hancock, American Museum of Natural History, Regimes of classification & the paradox of Kamchadal Heritage

Natalia Loukacheva, University of Toronto, Arctic governance and legal systems of Greenland and Nunavut

Discussant: Robert Thurston, History, Miami University

4:00-5:30pm MacMillan Hall 212

Presentation (to be announced)

Saturday, November 8

10:00am-12:00pm MacMillan Hall 212

Evenki

Chair: Mary Jane Berman, Director of the Center for American and World Cultures, Miami University

Aimar Ventsel, Estonian Literary Museum, Tartu, Estonia, People won't dance if they have nothing to eat: do economic transformation and centrally planned cultural revival fit together?

Craig Campbell, Department of Sociology, University of Alberta, Evenki Nomads of the Siberian Taiga

Discussant: Stanley Toops, Geography and International Studies, Miami University

1:30-3:30 MacMillan Hall 212

Formation of Civil Society

Chair: Dilchoda Berdieva, Political Science, Miami University

Jonathan Murphy, University of Cambridge, UK, The Influence of Associative Structures in the Development of Civil Society in Post-Soviet Countries

Elena Gvozdeva, Institute of Economics & Industrial Engineering, Russian Academy of Sciences, Siberian Branch, Sustainable Development of Siberia: the Role of Young Leaders in Social Change

Discussant: Karen Dawisha, Director of the Havighurst Center, Miami University

4:00-5:00

Summation & Closing Remarks

Mark Nuttall, Henry Marshall Tory Professor, Department of Anthropology, University of Alberta

Susan Crate, Havighurst Postdoctoral Fellow, Miami University

November 11-13, 2003

Window to the North Film Festival and Residency, with Andrei Golovnev

co-sponsored by the Institute for Environmental Sciences & The Havighurst Center

For more information, contact Susan Crate at crates@muohio.edu or go to

http://oracle.cas.muohio.edu/ies/window\_to\_the\_north.htm