

ARC 4/505Y Paper #2: Assessment of Frank Lloyd Wright 1911-1932 (at Age 65)

	20pts for ratings in all areas below.	15 pts for ratings in all areas below.	10 pts for ratings in all areas below	5 pts for ratings in all areas below.	0 pts
Formal issues with references to plan, space, exterior composition, interior arrangement, materials, ornament, etc.	Very thorough discussion	Nearly thorough discussion but with minor omissions	Adequate but not thorough discussion, leaving out major works or issues	Inadequate discussion with important omissions	Missing
Typological analysis (building types as categories of development over time)	Typologies very clearly understood and presented	Typologies understood and presented but with minor omissions	Typologies not well understood, adequately but not well presented	Typologies not well understood, incompletely presented	Missing
Stylistic developments based on formal and typological as well as creative/imaginative factors	Extremely well constructed rationale provided for the discussion	Very well constructed rationale provided for most of the works discussed	Well constructed rationale provided for a few of the works discussed	Poorly argued or incomplete response, not meeting the requirements of the assignment	Missing
Historical context, including personal, societal, cultural, or other factors	Extremely well integrated discussion of subject(s) and context(s)	Very well integrated discussion of subject(s) and context(s)	Well integrated discussion of subject(s) and context(s)	Poorly argued or incomplete response with little or no integration of subject(s) and context(s)	Missing
Interpretive conclusion relating the first four categories to opinions of the authors read, lectures given, and your personal views	Extremely well chosen evidence with strongly argued reasoning and conclusions	Very well chosen evidence with very well argued reasoning and conclusions	Adequately chosen evidence with adequately argued reasoning and conclusion(s)	Poorly chosen evidence with inadequately argued reasoning and conclusion(s)	Missing