

Generic Security Statement for Job Descriptions

As part of the composition of job descriptions, especially in regard to the descriptions that may involve individuals coming into contact with sensitive information, the following generic core description item is proposed.

“Understand and use best practices for information security at all times. Maintain a current understanding of university policy and guidelines regarding information security that include the Responsible Use of Computing at Miami University.”

070913 - RNK