

Location Definitions

On Campus:

Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and

Any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to paragraph (1) of this definition, that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).

What does this mean? A building or property that an institution owns, rents or leases is considered to be "controlled by" the institution. A building or property that is owned by a third party that has a written contract with the institution is also considered to be controlled by the institution.

"Dormitories or other residential facilities for students on campus" are a subset of the on-campus category.

Non-Campus

Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution; or

Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

What does this mean? Any building or property that is either owned or controlled by an officially recognized student organization is considered to be a "non-campus" location. Whether the building or property is located on campus or off campus is irrelevant. If it is owned or controlled by recognized student organization, it is non-campus for Clery Act purposes.

Public Property:

All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities, that is within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from campus.

City of Oxford:

Miami University chooses to provide students with information regarding incidents of crimes in the City of Oxford. This category is for the remaining public property that is within the City of Oxford, but is not required for the Clery Act report.
